Capel Banhaglog or East Mid –Wales Lead Mining Company Limited Acc 1602

Capel Banhadlog is in the SW of Llandinam parish and was a chapel of ease, probably serving the community around Banhadlog Hall. It is not clear whether 'Banhaglog' is a mis-spelling of 'Banhadlog', or if the name had to be altered slightly for some commercial reason. There were certainly lead mines in the area of Capel Banhadlog. The Chairman of the Central Snailbeach lead mine in Shropshire was a director of the Capel Banhaglog mine.
