Uneasy since 1. Answered 2.'s letter thinking that 2. Is displeased for not accepting 2.'s kind offer. Stillmof same opinion - very much regretting that was induced to decline coming to London. Never more dissatisfied with anything ever in life etc. 1. Declined entirely through wish of mother. Does not doubt 2. Has suited selves with a young man to entire satisfaction etc. Finishes first year 'here' early in October; uncertain where shall go - quite downhearted about it. Will suit self. Good excuse to return to London and take chance about getting a situation. Requests a few lines by post.

Has delayed answer to 2.'s letter of 19th July as 1. Wished to have opinion of sister Princess of Squinzano as to search in Herald's College. 'Here' passing rest of summer. Willing to spend £20 on information. Mr. Joseph Morris's idea was that 'our family' retained name Stafford. Will enquire about deeds of Trafalgwyn etc. Father sent papers to office in London. Kind of 2. To get the Harleian MSS in the British Museum examines - might throw light on subject (etc.)

7 August 1888

- Has heard from Mrs. Pryce that the Trafelgwyn deeds are at 'our' lawyers in London. 1's brother had a search made in the Herald's Office for an ancestor in reign of Charles I. Title of family must have been given up before 1625. Fancy the Pryces were then living at Perthyrn etc. Father had impression that family came from Brecknockshire - was a family there that possessed the Castle etc.

2. William Jones, Royal Regt.

Received 2.'s authority to act against Canal Co. (details follow of case). 2.'s uncle William gave 2.'s father all his personal estate subject to payment of legacies etc. Now liable to indemnification of the canal co. Has written to David Jones re. same. (Appends copy):

2. William Kerr, Cheltenham .

Though 1. had told 2. of Allen's opinion that canal co. were liable to pay money for land taken by the canal but they may recover amount from the parties in possession of the personal property of late William Jones and Pryce Jones : property in hands of trustees for Mrs. Jones and her children. Told that Pryce Jones left a portion of the £2,000 as an equivalent for money Pryce received from canal co. and that Drew was directed to mention this in the will (further details)

Letter (regarding personal estate of late William Jones). Aware of release by 1.'s son-in-law to his mother – son-in-law willing to come to arrangement re. compensation due to him by the canal co. to prevent law proceedings and injury to mother and sisters. (Comments re. Pryce Jones's cutting timber, Rock estate and Cottage).

(Kerr adds :)

2.'s mother was legal guardian and had power to receive rents etc. of his estate during minority. Should have furnished 2. with account of same and application. By William Jones's will whole of real and personal estate is given to mother for life (except £300 to 2.'s brother Price) with condition of forfeit on her remarriage. Does not appear that 2.'s sister Mary Ann or either of sisters entitled to any property till death of mother. The will gives last interest of £1,700 for life etc. Requests extract of will of uncle Mathew which gave Rock estate to uncle William for life, then to 2.'s father for life, then to 2. and heirs. Wishes to know if will authorise cutting of timber. Margaret received letter from Mary 'this morning', grieved to learn she was much indisposed. Understands by this that Dr. Dickson has lost bet with 2. – may pay the £100 to 1. to hold subject to order or to place it with Henry for 2.

M/X/46Records relating to the Collins/Mellings family of Cefngarthmyl Farm, Berriew*Accs 599 & 1680

- /1 - /2 Day book; 1826-30 and 1836-44. 1791-1844
The book consists of two main portions of day book accounts, formerly bound into a parchment cover. This last consists of a piece of re-used lease, dated 1791 from ?John W Dray to John Humphreys; the name of the property is not given. There is a reference to Newton, but the name of the parish has been lost. Two signatures on the inside cover read 'Martha ?' and 'William Mellings'. The book was presumably kept by the latter. Most entries record sales of beer, ale and spirits, but it is not entirely clear whether the accounts are those of a maltster, or someone keeping the accounts on behalf of a maltster or innkeeper.
- /3 Harwood's diary, with an almanack, for 1858. The diary of a farmer. Entries refer to the death of the diarist's mother, aged 82 (12 May 1835) and of his wife, aged 69 (8 May 1853), loans to John Mellings (23 January 1858, 23 April 1858), farm work at Cefngarthmyl, George Meddings (4 November 1858) and accounts 1858-1860. The handwriting seems to be the same as in M/X/46/1-/2. 1835-1860
- /4 1. Major William Corbett Winder 8 Mar 1880
2. Edwin Collins

Lease of Cefngarthmyl, for one year, for the sum of £20

PAPERS RELATING TO PTE. JOHN HIGGINS1883-1922

John Higgins was born on 23 March 1894, the son of Margaret and Robert Higgins of Guilsfield. In November 1914 he enlisted in the Royal Welsh Fusiliers and served for a time as a stretcher bearer. On 28 March 1917 he went missing in an action near Arras. Subsequent attempts by his mother and his sister, Mary, to trace him proved fruitless and in 1918 he was officially presumed to be dead. The collection includes some family correspondence and John Higgins' war service records, as well as documents recording the family's efforts to establish what happened to John in 1917.
