John Davies of Glascoed, gent, says that being at the house of Richard Wynne of Meifod, innkeeper, upon Tuesday 6 November last Thomas Pugh of Main, weaver, came in to company where this examinant was and assaulted this examinant both with his hands and feet without any provocation given by this examinant for him the said Pugh doing. Examinations-theft. [40E31]

21 January 1740. Examinations taken before George Robinson.

Richard Dallinar of Shrewsbury, co. Salop, brazier, says that on Monday, 14 January William Ward of pa. Berriew, labourer, came to the shop of Martha Reynolds, widow, at the town of Poole, and produced a silver spoon unto her son and this examinant and offered to sell the same and this examinant observing that there was a coat of arms on the same spoon and suspecting it to be stolen asked the said William Ward where he had it, who said that he found it in a field as he was mowing near Berriew and thereupon this examinant detained it and having now bought it to the Lord Viscount Hereford's house in Berriew, the said spoon being by him there produced appeared plainly to be my Lord Hereford's spoon having his coat of arms thereon, several of the same sort of spoons likewise verifying it to his spoon, and the said William Ward being apprehended and brought to my Lord's house and charged with the taking of the said spoon, did confess in the presence of this deponent and of several other persons that he had taken the said spoon of my Lord Hereford's said house some time ago. Richard Dallinar*.

John Lloyd, servant to the Lord Viscount Hereford says that some considerable time ago there was a silver spoon lost from my Lord Hereford's house, and much enquiry was made for it but to no purpose, but Richard Dallinar of Shrewsbury, brazier, coming yesterday to my Lord's asked the house keeper if she had lost a silver spoon and on answering him that she had lost one, the said Richard Dallinar delivered the said spoon to her asking her if it were the same that she had lost, and she assured him it was the same. And this examinant seeing the said spoon and taking particular notice thereof is very positive it is one of my Lord Hereford's spoons, he this examinant well knowing the same and the said William Ward confessed that he took the same from my Lord's house. John Lloyd*.

William Ward being charged with the taking of the said silver spoon did then confess that he had stolen the same from my Lord Hereford's house at Faenor when he was concerned in drinking too much and that when he found it about him next day he was ashamed to restore it, so kept it. The mark of William Ward. Edward Minton, my Lord Hereford's keeper swears to the same purpose as John Lloyd.

Examination-theft. [40E32]

25 April 1740. Taken before Gabriel Wynne.

John Cow of Newtown (toll gatherer of the wool in the said town) deposed that about a year ago (the particular time he cannot remember) as he was attending his business as a toll gatherer on a market day in the said town a young woman to this deponent then unknown came to him and complained that her mother, meaning Frances wife of Francis Ambrose in the first deposition mentioned, had lost a bag of wool in which was a pair of shoes and a skin and this deponent soon after seeing a woman on horseback with a little bag of wool under her, he went and examined it and in feeling it he could discern something like shoes in it, and some other things besides wool and in that time the said young woman came to them and said she would prove that bag to be her mother's. Upon that this deponent seized upon the horse and wool and would have secured the woman that rode upon it but that she hastily alighted and run away and escaped leaving the horse etc. in this deponent's custody. This deponent further says that he did not yet know the person who rode upon the said horse but that he was afterwards informed that she was Catherine daughter of Thomas Evans of Tregynon. However that he delivered the said horse and bag of wool into the custody of a constable and what became of them since this deponent knows not. John Cow*.

Examination-theft. [40E33]

25 April. Taken before Gabriel Wynne.

Frances wife of Francis Ambrose of pa. Berriew, deposes that about March last was twelve months she was at the town of Newtown when she bought of Mr. John Davies, glover, five wax weight of wool and one dressed sheepskin to make an apron, and that in another place she bought one pair of new shoes for a boy, all which she put in a bag, and carried them to the shop of Mr. Reignold Davies, mercer of the said town, where she left them while she was doing some other markets in town. That in about a quarter of half an hour she returned to look for her bag but could not find it, and therefore concluded that somebody had stolen it and carried it away. Upon that her daughter went and found the bellman or cryer and gave him orders to proclaim her bag, and also to observe if he could see such a bag with anyone going out of town. That John Cow (who was the bellman and also collector of the toll of wool in that town) sometime after (as this deponent was informed) saw a woman on horseback going out of town with a little bag of wool under her which by virtue of his office stopped and examined and found that there was something in the bag besides wool and therefore secured it on suspicion that it was the same which this deponent had lost as aforesaid, upon which that the woman that did ride upon it threw herself off the horse and made her escape and left the horse and bag in the custody of the said John Cow, who delivered them to a constable, and who went with them before Sir John Pryce that he might, as J.P., determine what should be done with them. That this deponent there verified her bag, and had it delivered to her by the order of the said J.P. and that since the criminal had made her escape no further steps were then taken in that affair. But this deponent was informed and has reason to believe that the criminal was Catherine Evans the daughter of Thomas Evans of pa. Tregynon who for a long time after disappeared and absconded from the country or words to that effect. The mark of Frances Ambrose.

Commitment to gaol. [40T12]

To the keeper of the common gaol for the county.

16 July 1740. Whereas Elizabeth wife of Mathew Pugh of Newtown, innkeeper, was on Monday 14 June bound in recognizance with two sureties to be of good behaviour especially towards Susan Evans her late servant whom she defamed and whereas she was immediately after guilty of the like offence in defaming the said Susan Evans a second time as has been duly proved by the oaths of two credible witnesses before me, and has refused to find sufficient security for her personal appearance at the next Q.S. for her good behaviour. These are in his Majesty's name to will and require you to receive the said Elizabeth Pugh into our said gaol and custody and there safely keep until she should find security as is aforesaid or until she be delivered in due course. John Pryce.

Elizabeth the wife of Shadrack Evans before mentioned makes oath that soon after the said Elizabeth Pugh was bound to the good behaviour for defaming the said Susan Evans in calling her a thief she this deponent heard the said Elizabeth Pugh say that the said Susan Evans was a thief and that she came in through the window.

The mark of Elizabeth Evans. Taken before John Pryce

Elinor Griffiths of Newtown makes oath that some time last night soon after the said Elizabeth Pugh was bound to her good behaviour for defaming the said Susan Evans for calling her a thief she this deponent heard the said Elizabeth Pugh say that she would bring others to prove her (meaning the said Susan Evans concerning whom they were then talking) a thief and that she broke the lock and came in through the window or that she said she came in through the window and broke the lock but which of these two expressions were uttered this deponent cannot well remember nor set forth but one of them she positively swears was uttered at the time above mentioned by the said Elizabeth Pugh. The mark of Elinor Griffiths. Taken before John Pryce.

15 July 1740. I, John Pryce, do hereby certify that Elizabeth wife of Mathew Pugh of Newtown was convicted by the oath of one credible witness for cursing me last night in the following words, God damn him, and that she paid 2s for the same into the hands of the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of pa. Newtown where the offence was committed.

14 July 1740. Hannah the wife of Nathaniel Holmes of Newtown, sadler, makes oath that within six weeks last past to the best of her knowledge and remembrance she washed one muslin, and one camrick handkerchief, the proper goods of Elizabeth wife of Mathew Pugh of Newtown, innkeeper, by her direction and appointment and delivered them washed and ironed to the said Elizabeth. Hannah Holmes*.

14 July 1740. Elizabeth the wife of Mathew Pugh aforesaid makes oath that either Wednesday or Thursday in Whitson week last she wanted her said muslin handkerchief in order to be dressed for a visit and bade Susan Evans (her servant at that time) find it for her, which she not being able to do, she bade her said servant find out that and a camrick handkerchief of hers likewise against another time, which this examinant says she never found for her according to the orders then given her. Elizabeth Pugh*.

14 July 1740. Elizabeth wife of Shadrack Evans of Newtown Hall, gardener, makes oath that on Tuesday 8 July she heard Elizabeth wife of Mathew Pugh aforesaid say that Susan Evans her late servant had taken her two handkerchiefs off her, and that on Saturday 12 July she heard the said Elizabeth Pugh utter the following words concerning Susan Evans aforementioned whom they had been talking of – I can bring some that can prove her a thief in other things and leave alone the handkerchiefs- and that the said Elizabeth Pugh likewise said in this deponent's hearing at that time – she (meaning the said Susan Evans) took my handkerchief like a thief as she was. The mark of Elizabeth Evans.

Examination-theft. [40T14]

29 May 1740. The examination of Griffith Roberts of pa. Berriew, smith, taken before George Robinson, touching the felonious taking of two strikes of corn the goods and chattels of the said Griffith Roberts. The examinant says that on Monday 19 May he bought two strikes of 'muncorn' or mixed corn at the town of Poole and after he had put the same into his own bag he carried it into the house of David Thomas of Poole aforesaid, innkeeper, and put it by the direction of the said David Thomas in a back room there, where such things are usually set to be kept on the like occasion, and this examinant going into and staying in another room of the said house about other business for about two hours did in the meantime see his said bag two or three times safe, but about six o'clock of the same day the said David Thomas came to this examinant and told him that he suspected that his bag of corn was stolen for that he saw a man take such a bag on his back out of his house and put it on a horse and that he going into the back room where this examinant had put the same to stand, he the said David perceived the said bag was stolen or taken away, whereupon this examinant finding it to be gone applied to a J.P. for a warrant to search for his said corn and on Thursday 20 May instant this examinant, together with the high constable and some other persons went into the house of John Evans of Llandrinio, butcher, who being then at home called this examinant out and privately confessed to him that he had taken the said examinant's corn out of the said David Thomas's house in Poole the day before, and the high constable proceeding to search he and this examinant found this examinant's bag which he had lost in a chamber of the said John Evans's house with about a strike of corn in it, and some time afterwards the said John Evans's wife returned home from the mill where she had taken corn to be ground and had meal under her and both she and her said husband John Evans did confess in this examinant's hearing that the meal she then brought home was made of the corn they had taken out of this examinant's bag, they having divided the same and taken about on half thereof to the mill. And this examinant says that the said bag so found and the corn that was in it was this examinant's bag and corn and the same that he had lost from the said David Thomas's house. And this examinant further says that the said John Evans has several times since the finding of the said bag of corn confessed to this examinant and to other persons in this examinant's hearing that he took the said corn from the said David Thomas's house. The mark of Griffith Roberts.

Presentment of a former prisoner. [40T15]

17 July 1740. The humble presentation of Thomas Evans of Newtown, tailor, a late prisoner in the county gaol on behalf of himself and others now unhappy sufferers in the said gaol.

Humbly begs leave to say before your worships the hardship and bad usage of the present gaoler towards him whilst he was a prisoner and towards the other unhappy wretches. That is to say, that he himself was not suffered for three or four days together to work upon his trade whereby to get a little money the better to support him in his misery. And to make his conditions the more miserable was harried up into a garret and there locked up and that if any letter was sent by any person either to him or any the other prisoners it would be first opened by the gaoler.

That he the said Thomas Evans paid the said gaoler 2s 4d a week for half a bed to lie on and other prisoners do the same and some are forced to pay more which is more than poor wretches in their condition are able to do whilst their poor families are starving at home.

That instead of the generous allowance made by your worships to the gaoler for the relief of such poor prisoners they are generally served and that only with a piggin of poor porridge, oftener sour or stale than fresh, and with sour milk or water diet of which facts the said Thomas Evans being present is willing to be examined upon oath for the better satisfaction of your worships. Thomas Evans*.

Petition for a charity licence. [40T16] [damaged]

To all charitable and well disposed persons.

The humble petition of Edward Owen of Ffridd Pen-y-wern, pa. Berriew and his wife, and David Williams of the same and his wife.

That your petitioners lived together in the same house tenants to Mrs. Lloyd of Trefnant, and that on 7 August instant a sudden and lamentable fire unfortunately happened there which burnt down their said dwelling house and barn together with all your poor petitioners apparel, beds, bedclothes, brass, pewter, and other their household goods and provision and livelihood, their bread, corn, hay in their barn, and £2 17s 6d in money. Your petitioners being all then a reaping about half a mile from their own house had not an opportunity of saving anything from the fire, but at their return home had neither house nor bed to lie in nor bit of bread to eat, nor clothes (but those few old ones they had then on) to wear. To their very great loss and utter ruin unless relieved by the charitable benevolence of well disposed people, which your poor petitioners do humbly pray maybe extended to them.

We whose names are subscribed do certify the truth of the above petition. Hereford*; Gabriel Wynne*; George Robinson*; ... vicar of Berriew,, churchwardens.

Examinations and recognizances-theft. [40M39]

2 October 1740 before Gabriel Wynne.

Thomas Rees, Andrew Gittyns, John Hughes, John Evans and Henry Hughes depose that they (on or about 22 September last by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of a J.P.) went to search the house, outhouses etc., of William Pryce of Gelligason in pa. Llanfair on suspicion of feloniously taking and carrying away from the fields of several persons in the neighbourhood wheat, barley, oats and other grain, and that in searching his barn they found as follows, to wit, one thrave and nineteen sheaves of rye in one place, and upon that rye there was a quantity of poor barley which these deponents believe might grow upon his own ground, and under that rye there was about a drag load of good barley much better as these deponents believe than any he could have of his own. In another place they found one thrave and four sheaves of rye and one sheaf of wheat, and in another place, two large sheaves of rye, much better as these deponents than any that he could have of his own. That they also found there six sheaves and eleven 'stiches' of white oats, and also three or four thraves of all sorts of straw promiscuously lapped together in a very uncommon manner. Also one pillion of wheat straw and six pillions of rye straw. That he had in the whole three thraves and one sheaf of rye unthreshed. One sheaf of wheat, six thraves and eleven 'stiches' of white oats, with upwards of four thraves of straw, amongst which was a considerable quantity of wheat and rye straw besides the barley afore mentioned. These deponents further severally depose that they were on 23 September last present at the examination of the said William Pryce before a J.P. where they heard him confess that he ought to have but two thraves and fifteen sheaves of rye, and one sheaf of wheat, and 14 sheaves of white oats, besides the barley growing upon his own ground, so that upon their computation he had about ten sheaves of rye more than he ought to have by his own confession, besides a considerable quantity which was unthreshed both of rye and wheat. That they also heard him confess that he sold seven heaped hoops of white oats at Newtown about 9 September last, which these deponents do conceive he could not have from 14 sheaves and that the said William Pryce could not give any reasonable account how he had the same any other way. Thomas Rees*, Andrew Gittins*, John Hughes*, John Evans*, Evan Thomas*.

The mark of Henry Hughes.

2 October 1740. John Jones of tp. Gelligason, pa. Llanfair, in £10. Taken before Gabriel Wynne for the said John Jones to appear at the next G.Q.S. to prefer a bill of indictment and give evidence against William Pryce, late of tp. Gelligason on a suspicion of his feloniously taking and carrying away wheat, rye, barley and other grain from the fields of some person or persons in the neighbourhood being the property of such person or persons.

2 October 1740. Thomas Rees, Andrew Gittyns, John Evans, and Henry Hughes, all of tp. Gelligason, pa. Llanfair, and John Hughes of tp. Brynelen in the said parish, and Evan Thomas of the said tp. Gelligason, each in £5. Taken before Gabriel Wynne for the above named to appear at the next G.Q.S. to give evidence upon a bill of indictment to be preferred against William Pryce late of tp. Gelligason on a suspicion of his feloniously taking and carrying away wheat, rye, barley and other grain from the field of some person or persons in the neighbourhood.

Depositions-theft. [40M40]

23 September 1740. Depositions taken before Gabriel Wynne for the King against William Pryce of tp. Gelligason, pa. Llanfair on suspicion of felony.

Evan Thomas of tp. Gelligason deposes that on Sunday 14 September one William Jones son of John Jones of the said township came to this deponent's house about 12 o'clock at night and called him out of his bed and told him that he was on his way there did meet the said William Pryce going down towards his father's corn field. That there had been corn stolen out of the said field by persons unknown and that as the said

William Pryce was a man of a very bad character that he desired this deponent to go with him to watch him. And that as they both went towards the said field they could perceive two persons in the field standing by a stack of wheat but whether they were males or females this deponent could not at that distance discern. However they in the field (as this deponent believes) heard them coming and immediately ran away and hid themselves in the hedge. Upon that this deponent and the said William Jones made more haste and went to the stack of wheat where they saw the said unknown persons stand and there they found all the stack taken down and that instead of six sheaves which was put in the rest of the stacks they found there eight and also found a large sack upon the ground by it which was pitchmarked with a lion rampant in two places upon it. And after they had secured the said sack or bag they went to search for the persons to whom they thought it belonged and that in searching they found lying in the ditch Ursula the wife of the said William Pryce and Catherine her daughter but could not find the said William Pryce. And that when they expostulated with the said Ursula concerning her being there at that unseasonable hour, she said that she had meddled with the corn and also disowned that bag but could give no tolerable reason for her being there.

Examination-theft. [40M41]

2 August 1740 before Gabriel Wynne.

David Jones of pa. Llanllugan, farmer, deposes that on or about Monday 7 July last he sent a bag with a strike of rye to the mill of Richard Andrew of the same parish, miller, to be ground. And that about Friday next following he was informed that it was stolen out of the said mill by persons unknown, upon which this deponent and Richard Andrew went and searched several houses in the neighbourhood but could it not. And after that went to the house of Mary Jones single woman who then resided in the parish of Betws about three miles from the mill, and having searched the same they found the bag of this deponent which was stolen aforesaid and one hoop of rye which the said Mary Jones confessed she had taken from the said mill as aforesaid or to that effect. The mark of David Jones.

Examination-theft. [40M42]

2 August 1742. Before Gabriel Wynne. Richard Andrew of pa. Llanllugan, miller, deposes that on or about Wednesday 9 July last (sometime in the night of the same day) one strike of rye, which was the property of David Jones of the same parish, was feloniously taken out of his mill, by persons unknown, upon which this deponent and the said David Jones went to search for the same in the neighbourhood but found it not. But afterwards hearing that one Mary Jones single woman (who then resided in pa. Betws) but a parishioner of the said pa. Llanllugan, had been about that time wandering about pa. Llanllugan, and being known to be a person of a very indifferent character, this deponent and the said David Jones went to the house where the said Mary Jones lived in pa. Betws (which was about three miles from the mill whence the said corn was stolen) and in searching the house they found the bag of the said David Jones which was stolen as aforesaid. And about a hoop of rye in another bag. And upon their examining the said Mary Jones concerning it she confessed that she did take the said bag and the two hoops of rye out of the said mill as aforesaid but that she had no associates in the felony or to that effect. The mark of Richard Andrew.

Depositions-theft [40M43]

13 September 1740. Depositions taken before Richard Rocke, esq., J.P.

William Penrhyn of Gwernowddwy, yeoman, deposes that he having lost some corn went this day in search thereof unto the house of John Morgan of pa. Llandrinio, drummer and flaxdresser, and there found in the bed chamber of the said John Morgan upon some lumber covered with straw one sheep skin pitch marked with the letters J. D. upon the hinder parts which this examinant apprehending it to belong to John Davies of Gwernowddwy aforesaid took it with him to show the said John Davies and delivered it to him which skin the said John Davies thought to be his. And this examinant further says that after he found the said skin he upon further search in the said bed chamber there found upon a shelf in two wooden bowls two shoulders and two legs of mutton with part of the loin to one leg, which were covered. Upon this the said John Morgan being then about the house this examinant asked him where he had the said skin and the said meat, to which he answered he had the skin in a hedge and that he bought the flesh. William Penrhyn*.

15 September 1740 before Richard Rocke.

John Davies of Gwernowddwy, yeoman, says that on Saturday last William Penrhyn brought to this examinant one sheep skin telling him he found it in the bed chamber of John Morgan of Llandrinio aforesaid which this examinant upon viewing told the said William Penrhyn that he thought it to be his being pitch marked with the letters J. D. upon the hinder parts and the same mark which this examinant always marked his sheep with. And this examinant further says that upon since examining whether he had lost any sheep he upon searching Meifod one ewe sheep which had the same mark as the skin William Penrhyn showed him and this examinant believes it to be the skin of his ewe which is now missing. John Davies*.

Depositions-theft. [40M44]

9 September 1740. Depositions taken before Richard Roche, esq., J.P.

William Robinson, servant to Abraham Ellis of tp. Trefnannau, gent, deposes that early in the morning upon Sunday 7 September last he went to view his master's ground in tp. Trefnannau and as he was returning home this examinant came by the barn of Henry Hughes late of Trefnannau, bankrupt, and could hear somebody threshing therein upon which this examinant went to the door of the said barn and looked therein and saw Robert Jones (otherwise Goch) of Trefnannau, labourer, threshing wheat with a pikelet in the said barn about the quantity of a hoop and this examinant asked him to open the door saying he knew who he was but the said Robert Jones refused so to do, upon which this examinant went up to a hole that as in the side of the barn thinking to go into the said barn thereat but as soon as the said Robert Jones who was then holding the door saw this examinant he run out of the said barn through the cowhouse into the fold and made his escape thereby. And further this examinant says that he believes the said Robert Jones would have conveyed the said wheat away if he had been disturbed. The mark of William Robinson.

Petition for charity licence. [41E56]

To the G.Q.S. at Montgomery on 15 January 1741. The humble petition of Sampson Woola of pa. Llanidloes, yeoman.

That on Monday 3 November last in the night time a sudden and dreadful fire broke out in your petitioner's dwelling house which in a short time burnt down the same to ashes together with his household stuff, rye oats and hay and that the violence of the flames were such that your petitioner his wife and six small children escaped them with difficulty his youngest child's clothing being all consumed so that she had not a single rag to screen and defend her from the rigidity of the severe season save what the neighbours afterwards gave her in pity and compassion and that by reason of this unhappy accident your petitioner his wife and children are reduced to extreme poverty having nothing to subsist on and support themselves but what they gain from your petitioner's labour and the charity and benevolence of his neighbours.

Wherefore your petitioner humbly begs that your worships out of pity and compassion to his present miserable circumstances would be pleased to grant unto your petitioner your worships letter of testimonial and recommendation to the end that he may be relieved by virtue thereof and the charity of well disposed Christians.

6 January 1741. We the minister churchwardens together with other inhabitants of the said pa. Llanidloes do humbly certify that the matter set forth in the above written petition is true and we therefore beg leave to recommend the bearer unto your worships as an object of charity by reason of the said loss which he has sustained in hopes that your worships will commiserate his condition and grant him your testimonial and recommendation for his redress. David Prichard*, clerk; Thomas Evans*, Edward Kinsey*, the mark of David Davies, churchwardens; Thomas Clunn*, Wythen Jones*. At the foot: Letters recommendatory for 6 months.

Examinations-theft. [41T38]

6 July 1741. Examination of witnesses taken before Sir Charles Lloyd, bart, J.P.

Roger Howells of Trehelig, husbandman, says that sometime since the month of May last he was employed by his brother Thomas Howells of Poole, yeoman, to carry a parcel of chips from Leighton wood to Poole at 2s 6d a load and that he was also employed by John Humphreys of Poole, weaver, to carry for him from the aforesaid wood a load of blocks or wood not for cordwood to the said John Humphreys' house in Poole which he accordingly did and that such load of wood was delivered this examinant at Leighton wood by Walter Harris and Richard Harris who informed him and the said John Humphreys that they had a right to sell the same and says that the said John Humphreys scrupled to take one piece of the wood or timber part of the said load supposing it did not belong to the said Walter Harris and Richard Harris, but they told him he might carry it away for that it was their property or word to that or the like effect, and says that he has also carried from Leighton wood to Poole several other cart loads of blocks or wood cut for cordwood for several other persons and that such wood was delivered this examinant by the said Walter Harris and Richard Harris. Roger Howells*.

John Humphreys of Poole, weaver, says that sometime in the month of June last he bought a parcel of chips and blocks of wood of Richard Harris at Leighton wood and that the said Roger Howells carried the same to Poole, but this examinant being doubtful whether the said blocks were the said Richard Harris's own property, he was unwilling to carry the same away lest this examinant should come to some trouble for so doing upon which the said Richard Harris told him that such blocks belonged to him and he would sell them and ordered the said Roger Howells to carry them away for this examinant which was done accordingly and further says that Friday morning Roger Howells brought another load of blocks or wood cut or cloven for cordwood and loose chips for the examinant from Leighton wood aforesaid for which this examinant paid Walter Harris 2s. John Humphreys*.

Sarah Reignolds of Poole, widow, says that about a fortnight since she bought of Walter Harris a load of chips for 1s 6d and that she went to Leighton wood with a team to carry the same away and that Walter Harris gave her a block or piece of wood intended for cordwood. The mark of Sarah Reignolds

John Bibby of Wotherton in co. Salop, woodcutter, says that he has been for some time past employed to cut and cord wood in Leighton wood and that he did this day take a view of some cordwood or wood cut and intended for cordwood in the possession of John Humphreys of Poole and that such wood was brought from Leighton wood and was the property of Sir Richard Corbet, bart, as this examinant believes. The mark of John Bibby.

Deposition-theft. [42H35]

12 November before Gabriel Wynne.

David Edward of Cynhinfa, pa. Llangynyw deposes that on Thursday 10 October 1741 one hoop of the value of 10d was feloniously stolen by persons unknown from him the said David Edward; and that having a warrant to search for stolen goods, he, with Mawd his wife, and Richard Luke, the constable of the said township, went to search the house of Daniel Francis of the same township, but observes that it was with great difficulty that they were permitted to enter and search the said house, however they found nothing in the said house. But as they looked into the barn they could see some loose feathers of a goose there, and that next day this deponent and Mawd his wife went there again and that as they were going towards the house they could see a dog come out of the house with a piece of flesh in his mouth which they examined and found to be the flesh of a goose boiled, and warm. They went to the house where at the door they were met by Anne the daughter of the said Daniel Francis to whom they told what they had seen but she replied that there was no flesh in the house and that while they were talking the said Daniel came to them and held this deponent in discourse while the daughter went into the house and that in a little time after this deponent could see the said Anne come towards the house having been out in the field. And soon after that one Mrs. Anne Lloyd came there with a carcass of a goose which she said she found hid in a ditch in her field from whence he had seen the said Anne Francis come. And having searched the house he found some goose flesh boiled and the feathers hid in a mixen. And afterwards the said Anne Francis confessed that she had killed the goose in the manner and circumstances of the fact. On the reverse: Mawd the wife of the said David Edward, Richard Luke of tp. Cynhinfa and Anne Lloyd of the said township are material witnesses to be examined concerning the premises.

Depositions-theft. [42H36]

14 November 1741 before Gabriel Wynne

Morris Evans, petty constable of tp. Penarth, pa. Llanfair, Evan Thomas of the same, and Henry Evans of tp. Llanfair severally depose that on Monday 9 November they each of them at the instance and direction of John Evans of tp. Llanfair and Robert Griffith of tp. Penarth, who complained that several sheep were lately feloniously taken and carried away of their several sheepwalks by persons unknown and that they had reason to suspect some persons in the neighbourhood for having so taken away the same. And therefore they had obtained a warrant to search for things stolen etc, by virtue of such warrant these deponents were required to search several houses in the neighbourhood, upon which among others, they searched the house of one Thomas Evans of tp. Penarth and that in searching they there found as follows, that is to say, several pieces of mutton undressed in a bowl in the buttry which these deponents apprehended was about three quarters of mutton, upon which these deponents or one of them asked Mary wife of the said Thomas Evans where she had so much meat or to that effect. She told them that on Saturday 30 October she bought a side of mutton at Llanfair. Upon that these deponents viewed the flesh a second time and then told her that there was more than a side then she told them that she had also bought a neck of mutton but still it appeared that there was more than two quarters and a neck. Then these deponents asked of whom she had bought so much meat. As to that she pretended she did not know, though as these deponents observe no strange butchers frequent the market and consequently must have known the butcher if she had bought the meat. These deponents further say that they also found in the said house a considerable quantity of wool, to wit, some in sacks which was dry and as they apprehended sheared wool. And some they found on the end of a chest which was wet, very yellow and dirty. And some they apprehended was pelled wool and not sheared. These deponents say that they took particular notice of the last wool, and asked the said Mary what it was and where she had it and that she told them it was the same with that in the sack but these deponents positively say that they cannot apprehend it to be the same because that in the sack was clean and dry and appeared like sheared wool and the other was wet and dirty and had all the appearance of pelled wool and consequently that they suspect that both the meat and wool was stolen

Depositions-theft. [42H37]

16 November 1741 before Gabriel Wynne.

Thomas Lewis now a servant with Jonathan Davies of pa Llangynyw deposes that he was in his said master's house on Saturday 14 November about eight o'clock at night. His said master came into the house with one John Humphreys (who was a labourer employed in threshing for the said Jonathan Davies) and some other servants, and that then and there the said master discovered to them that he had apprehended the said John Humphreys as he was taking some corn out of the barn, and there produced the pack of the said John Humphreys which being opened they found in one bag about the quantity of one hoop of wheat and in another bag about half a hundred of apples, which said John Humphreys afterwards confessed to this deponent he did design to take or steal from the said Jonathan Davies and also confessed the same within deponent's hearing and before the justice. The mark of Thomas Lewis.

Thomas Williams of pa. Llangynyw (high constable of hd. Mathrafal) deposes that he and others at the instance of Jonathan Davies of Mathrafal pa. Llangynyw went by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of Gabriel Wynne, esq., J.P. to search the house of John Humphreys of tp. Broniarth, pa. Guilsfield for things stolen where he found about half a hoop of 'muncorn' and an old silk handkerchief which the said John Humphreys afterwards confessed in the hearing of this deponent that he had taken or stolen from the said Jonathan Davies. The mark of Thomas Williams.

Catherine Davies of Mathrafal deposes the same in substance as the above named Thomas Lewis.

The person committed has confessed that he has lived with Mr. Thomas Webb at Topsley a mile distant from Hereford, that he lived there a full year and was discharged three weeks ago. He was paid his wages for the full year and he further says that he left his master without any occasion and was willing to live with his sister at Topsy till he could get other employ. From thence he came to visit his mother and from thence went to Poole where he met with a gentleman's servant whom he knows not nor his master and went to water with him and coming back with him the mare died of the staggers about a mile from Poole and from thence came to his sister in Dolfor last night and was going this day for Hereford and was taken upon the hills. Tis a bay mare of his sister's without any mark. The mark of William ap Richard.

This is his whole confession and after examination we found two directions in his pocket, viz., the one to Thomas Milsom at the White Hart in Bath, the other direction to Mr. Richard Brown at Mr. Landsdown in Woodborough.

Whereas complaint has been made to me, Thomas Edwards, by Mr. Charles Pryce now of Kerry that one Richard Davies the younger of pa. These are therefore to require you Summon for evidence: Thomas Davies, Ann Price the younger.

Examinations. [42M45] [much amended and difficult to read]

5 August 1742 before Thomas Edwards.

Sarah Ruffe says that last Sunday evening Richard Rogers and Ann Lewis, mother of William Lewis apprentice to Robert Hancock of Kerry, smith, came and delivered the said apprentice to his master Robert Hancock. That soon after they went away the said Hancock locked his door and she immediately heard some noise or bustle within the said Hancock's house and the said apprentice thereupon cried out, Sarah Ruffe, Sarah Ruffe, he will kill me, come and save me and this continued for a considerable time. The mark of Sarah Ruffe.

Mary Price said that on the same Sunday evening she saw the said Robert Hancock throw William Lewis his apprentice upon the floor in his house, then locked the door and taking him by the throat or of the hand went up to the chimney and there beat him against the walls (as this examinant believes). She plainly heard the blows of his head against the said wall, and the said boy calling out at the same time to Sarah Ruffe to come to save him or that he would certainly ... knock his brains out against the wall and that this examinant also heard the said Hancock threaten that he would forthwith give him as good a beating on the morrow as ever he had. Mary Price*.

William Lewis, about 17 or 18 years of age, apprentice to Robert Hancock of Kerry, smith, says that on Sunday evening last his said master threw him on the floor then shutting and locking the door caught this examinant's throat and swung him against the chimney wall or ... or beat him with his hand against the said wall for a considerable time till this ... at the outcry of this examinant or noise that he made came there and demanded the door to be opened and further says that on the morning following without provocation ... by this examinant the said Robert came to him with a stick and beat him severely ... house long this examinant knows not being in a senseless with the first blow that he has several times said he would ... him ... him go to the died?... and lastly this examinant being in fear of this life through the abuse he has had from the said master he has left him and applied for redress. The mark of William Lewis.

Recognizance. 9 August 1742. Robert Hancock in £10; John Hancock, husbandman, in £5. For Robert Hancock to appear at the next G.Q.S. to answer.

GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS – EASTER 1743

Vagrancy order. [43E1]

14 March 1743. To the constable of tp. Berriew and also to the governor or master of the house of correction at Montgomery and likewise to all governors or masters of houses of correction whom it may concern to receive and convey; and to the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of pa. Tenbury, co. Worcester or either of them to receive and obey.

Whereas Mary Jones, wife of Edward Jones and Edward their son were apprehended in tp. Berriew as rogues and vagabonds and brought before a J.P. and upon examination of the said Mary Jones it does appear that they are rogues and vagabonds and that their last legal settlement is at Tenbury, co. Worcester. These are therefore to require you the said constable to convey the said Mary Jones and her said child to the house of correction at Montgomery, and you the governor or master of the said house of correction to receive them into your custody and them to convey or cause to be conveyed to the first house of correction in the next county or place in the direct way to the said pa. Tenbury; and in like manner every other governor or master of every house of correction to whom it may belong to convey the said Mary Jones and her said child from house of correction to house of correction until they shall arrive at the house of correction to which the said pa. Tenbury does belong, and for them then to be conveyed to the churchwarden or overseer of the poor of pa. Tenbury who are required to receive and provide for them. At the foot: Appeal to be saved to next Q.S. by consent upon payment of the costs of pa. Tenbury and then to be heard without further notice. Confirmed without costs.

Examination. [43E2]

14 March 1743. The examination of Mary the wife of Edward Jones (now listed a soldier) taken before George Robinson.

This examinant says that about the month of August 1739 she hired herself to serve the widow Brunt of the Boars Head in Tenbury for a year, and that at the time of her being in the said service she became acquainted with Edward Jones her husband who was a hired servant in the same family before she came there, and that she was married to the said Edward Jones on or about 19 January 1740. And she further says that she was informed by her said husband Edward Jones and by others since that her said husband continued a hired servant in the service of the said widow Brunt in pa. Tenbury a whole year and more and that he came to the house of the said widow Brunt about the beginning of the Christmas holidays in the year 1738 and about the later end of the same Christmas holidays he was hired to serve the said widow Brunt from that time till May then next following and served her accordingly. That some time before the same May the said widow Brunt liking her said servant Edward Jones did again hire him to serve her from May for the whole year then next following and that he accordingly continued in her service according to his last hiring until 14 January 1740 when he was married as aforesaid and about a week afterwards he was married and then he and this examinant left their said service and have gained no settlement elsewhere to the best of her knowledge. She further says that the young child aged about three months which she now carries with her is the child of the said Edward Jones and this examinant. The mark of Mary Jones.

Appointment of deputy clerk of the peace [43E12]

8 April 1743. Know all men by these presents that I John Wilson of Bwlch-y-llyn, gent, clerk of the peace, have nominated constituted and appointed in my place and stead put Evan Vaughan the younger of Newtown, gent, to act as my lawful deputy at the next G.Q.S. John Wilson*, in the presence of: George Smith*, Edmund Sowerby*.

Order in Council. [43E13] [damaged]

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the 9th year of his Majesty's [reign] intituled An Act laying a duty upon the retailers of spirituous liquors and for licensing the retailers thereof all persons are prohibited to sell any spirituous liquors or strong waters about the street highways or the fields in a wheelbarrow or basket or on the water or any hall bulk or shed under the penalty of £10 for each offence. And power is thereby given to one or more J.P.s to convict such offenders in the manner therein mentioned and or neglect to pay it to commit him or her to the house of correction for two months. And whereas by another Act made in the present session of parliament intituled an Act for repealing certain duty on spirituous liquors and on licenses for retailing the same and for laying other duties on spirituous liquors and on licenses to retail the said liquors all persons are prohibited to sell by retail spirituous liquors and strong waters unless they shall be licensed thereto in the manner therein directed under the penalty of £10 for every offence to be paid on conviction before one or more J.P.s and on non payment being committed to the house of correction for two months. And whereas it is thereby provided and enacted that no licence shall be granted to any but to such persons as keep taverns, victualling houses, inns, coffee houses or alehouse nor shall any such be enabled to sell by retail spirituous liquors or strong waters unless they shall first have a licence also to sell ale or spirituous liquors from two more justices. And whereas by one Act of Parliament of the fourth year of King James the first intituled an Act for repressing the odious and loathsome sin of drunkenness, and by one other Act in the twenty-first year of his reign intituled An Act for the better repressing of drunkenness and restraining the inordinate haunting of inns alehouses and other victualling houses, and by other Acts diverse penalties are inflicted on persons guilty of the crime of drunkenness or who sit tippling in alehouses contrary to law. And power is thereby given to J.P.s to carry the said laws into execution. And whereas it has been represented to his Majesty that notwithstanding the said Act of the 9th of his Majesty and the said Acts made against drunkenness and tippling, the practice of excessive drinking spirituous liquors has not been prevented and diverse disorderly and irregular persons have taken upon themselves to sell the same by retail contrary to the said Act of 9th of his Majesty and do continue the same. His Majesty taking the same into his serious consideration and being desirous to put a stop as much as in him lies to a custom so destructive of the health morals and industry of his subjects and to the peace of his kingdom, and being sensible that the faithful and diligent execution of the said laws would effectually remedy the said evil. We therefore in his Majesty's name and by his express commands pray and require you to recommend it to and press it in the strongest manner upon the J.P.s within this county that they use their utmost endeavours to carry all the said laws into execution and more especially that they take particular care not to grant licences for selling ale or spirituous liquors to any but such as are strictly qualified according to law and are not known to be guilty of any disorderly practice or likely to suffer them in their houses, and that they do call before them the high constables and petty constable and all other officers under their direction and give them the strictest orders not to suffer any persons to sell spirituous liquors in the street or other prohibited places and to be very industrious in discovering apprehending and bringing to punishment all persons guilty of the said vice of drunkenness and all other offences prohibited by the said laws. And so not doubting of your compliance herewith, we bid heartily farewell from the council chamber at Whitehall 31 March 1743. Your loving friends. Hardwicke ..., Harrington, P., Gower, C.P.S., Abercorn, Samuel Sandys, Winnington, Will. Younge. Your loving friend Henry Arthur Herbert esq., Custos Rotulorum of the county of Montgomery.

Examinations-entry. [48T18]

18 June 1748. The examination of Thomas Powell the elder of Ffrith in pa. Berriew, husbandman, Thomas Powell the younger of Penrhyn, labourer, Humphrey Owen of pa. Castell Caereinion, husbandman, and Robert Lloyd of the town of Montgomery, butcher, taken before George Robinson, esq., J.P. Thomas Powell the elder says that John Goodwyn of pa. Berriew, the high constable of the lower division of hd. Newtown, did together with one James Lloyd Turner of pa. Berriew, husbandman, and one Robert Jones of the same, shoemaker, on or about 26 May last past under the colour of a J.P.'s warrant directed to the said John Goodwyn as high constable of the said division arrest this examinant Thomas Powell the elder and insisted upon his going with them the said John Godwyn, James Lloyd Turner and Robert Jones before the Justice by whom the warrant was granted in order to be examined upon the complaint of one Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan at whose instance the said warrant was granted upon some pretence of forcible entry made by the said Thomas Powell into a room or chamber of the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan and taking from thence in a forcible manner some goods of the property or pretended property of the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan's, and this deponent further says that being under the arrest or pretended arrest or restraint under the said warrant and obliged to go with the said John Goodwyn, James Lloyd Turner and Robert Jones towards the said justice, the said Thomas Powell the elder in his way hither was obliged (in order to gain his liberty and before he should be permitted to go at large) to enter into a promissory note unto the said Catherine Powell for the sum of £9 and unto the said James Lloyd Turner another note for the sum of £2 9s or thereabouts and to pay down in money to the said James Lloyd Turner the sum of 7s and to enter into another note unto the said Robert Jones for the sum of 8s all which notes and sums of money they the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan, James Lloyd Turner and Robert Jones severally claimed and insisted upon while this examinant was under the arrest aforesaid for quite different pretensions from the complaint mentioned in the said warrant. And this deponent further says that when they had obtained such notes and sums of money they then permitted this examinant to go at large without proceeding any further to the said justices or to hear the matter of complaint or pretended injury or forcible entry for which the said warrant was granted. And this examinant further says that the pretensions of the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan to the sum of £9 was for goods and cattle of the said Thomas Powell the younger to whom she pretended to have been married and that such goods and cattle were left by him to the said Thomas Powell the younger under the care and management of the said Thomas Powell the elder who in the absence of his son who was then gone into service which therefore she insisted upon did belong to her and this examinant further says that the pretensions or claim of the James Lloyd Turner to the said note for £2 9s and to the sum of 7s in money was on account of ss..expenses and charges which he the said James Lloyd Turner had been at in relieving maintaining and supporting the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan during her lying in of a child whom she pretended was begat upon her by the said Thomas Powell the younger as being married to him as above. And this examinant further says that the claim of the said Robert Jones to the said 8s was for some trespass or pretended trespass this examinant had done to him to the value of 5s and for a journey or some other trouble he had taken upon his this examinant's account or on account of the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan to the value of 3s.

This examinant Thomas Powell the younger says that he was never married to the said Catherine and that he never promised her marriage or pretended to anyone else either by his discourse, behaviour or otherwise that he had been married or would be married to the said Catherine or ever designed any such thing.

This deponent Humphrey Owen says that on or about 26 May last past he was present and in company with the said Thomas Powell the elder when the said John Goodwyn, James Lloyd Turner and Robert Jones came to the house of the said Thomas Powell the elder and that he heard them all insist upon the said Thomas Powell going with them before a J. P. on account of the said Catherine Powell otherwise Vaughan and that he should not make any stay but go immediately with them and that this examinant in about half an hour time afterwards left them all there together.

The examinant Robert Lloyd says that he was present at the town of Montgomery and drew the several notes mentioned above in the said Thomas Powell the elder's examination and saw such notes severally signed and the sum of 7s in money paid to the said James Lloyd Turner in the presence of this deponent. The marks of Thomas Powell the elder, Thomas Powell the younger and Humphrey Owen. Robert Lloyd*.
